

Response degeneracy in the selected local operator basis

A fitted response cannot independently determine c , β , and the finite local potential coefficient.