

A shared-current quartic can stabilize a finite interval, with companion matter feedback

Declared matching: $g_Z = \sqrt{2}$, $\sigma = 1$. Selected EFT terms only; no observational allowed region or new cosmic trajectory.